Introduction-Begin Here

What is the EIC?

The earned income credit (EIC) is a tax credit for certain people who work and have earned income under $34,178. A tax credit usually means more money in your pocket. It reduces the amount of tax you owe. The EIC may also give you a refund.

Can I Claim the EIC?

To claim the EIC, you must meet certain rules. These rules are summarized in Table 1.

Table 1. Earned Income Credit in a Nutshell

First, you must meet all the rules in this column.	Second, you must rules in one of the whichever applies	ese columns,	Third, you must meet both the rules in this column. Chapter 4. Figuring and Claiming the EIC

Do I Need This Publication?

Although everyone can use this publication to figure their EIC, most people can choose to follow the steps in their tax form instructions instead.

Certain people must use this publication, instead of their form instructions, to see if they meet the rules to take the EIC. You are one of those people if you were sent here from Step 2 or Step 3 of the instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A.

What If I Was Sent Here From the Instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A?

If you were sent here from the instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A, you have met at least the first four rules to claim the credit. You can now go to Rule 5 on page 6.

How Do I Figure the Amount Of EIC?

If you can claim the EIC, you can either have the IRS figure the amount of your credit, or you can figure it yourself. To figure it yourself, you can complete EIC Worksheet A or B in chapter 4. Or, you can complete a worksheet in the instructions for the form you file.

How Can I Quickly Locate Specific Information?

You can use the index to look up specific information. In most cases, index entries will point you to headings, tables, worksheets, or to text in bold face.

How Can I Get EIC In My Paycheck In the Year 2003?

You may prefer to get some of next year's EIC throughout the year, rather than wait and get EIC after you file your tax return. Chapter 6 explains advance payment of EIC and tells how, if you have a qualifying child, you may be able to get some of the EIC in your paycheck.

Important Changes

New definition of earned income. Earned income no longer includes nontaxable employee compensation. See Rule 6 and Rule 15.

Elimination of modified adjusted gross income (AGI). You no longer need to figure modified AGI. Your EIC is figured using your AGI, not modified AGI. See Rule 14.

New rules for persons with same qualifying child. New rules determine which person can claim the EIC on the basis of a qualifying child when two or more persons have the same qualifying child and both claim the credit using that child. See Rule 8.

New definition of eligible foster child. There is a new definition of an eligible foster child in Rule 7. The child has to live with you only for more than half of the year, instead of the whole year.

Reduction of EIC by alternative minimum tax eliminated. Your EIC is no longer reduced by the amount of alternative minimum tax shown on your return.

Increased EIC on certain joint returns. A married person filing a joint return now may get more EIC than someone with the same income but a different filing status. As a result, the EIC table now has different columns for married persons filing jointly than for everyone else. When you look up your EIC in the EIC Table, be sure to use the correct column for your filing status.

Important Reminders

Earned income credit has no effect on certain welfare benefits. Any refund you receive because of the EIC and any advance EIC payments you receive will not be considered income when determining whether you are eligible for the following benefit programs, or how much you can receive from these programs. However, if the amounts you receive are not spent within a certain period of time, they may count as an asset (or resource) and affect your eligibility.

- Medicaid and supplemental security income (SSI).
- · Food stamps.
- · Low-income housing.

Temporary assistance for needy families (TANF) benefits may be affected. Please check with your state.

Disallowed EIC. If you claim the EIC and it is later disallowed, you may have to complete an additional form if you want to claim the credit in a later year. See chapter 5 for more information.

Reporting advance payments of EIC received in 2002. If you received advance payments of EIC in 2002, you must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A to report the payments. Your Form W-2, box 9, (as shown in Figure 1) will show the amount you received. Report the amount on line 59 (Form 1040) or line 37 (Form 1040A).

Chapter 1. Rules for Everyone

This chapter discusses Rules 1 through 6. You must meet all six rules to qualify for the earned income credit. If you do not meet all six rules, you cannot get the credit and you do not need to read the rest of the publication.

Note. If you meet all six rules in this chapter, then read either chapter 2 or chapter 3 (whichever applies) for more rules you must meet.

Rule 1. Social Security Number (SSN)

Rule 1 You Must Have a Valid Social Security Number (SSN)

Valid SSN. To claim the EIC, you (and your spouse, if filing a joint return) must have a valid SSN issued by the Social Security Administration (SSA). Any qualifying child listed on Schedule EIC must also have a valid SSN. (See Rule 7 if you have a qualifying child.) If your social security card (or your spouse's if filing a joint return) says "Not valid for employment" and your SSN was issued so that you (or your spouse) could get a federally funded benefit, you cannot get the EIC. An example of a federally funded benefit is Medicaid. If you have a card with the legend "Not valid for employment" and your immigration status has changed so that you are now a U.S. citizen or permanent resident, ask the SSA for a new social security card without the legend.

U.S. citizen. If you were a U.S. citizen when you received your SSN, you have a valid SSN.

Valid for work only with INS authorization. If your social security card reads "Valid for work with INS authorization," you have a valid SSN.

SSN missing or incorrect. If an SSN for you or your spouse is missing from your tax return or is incorrect, you may not get the EIC.

Other taxpayer identification number. You cannot get the EIC if, instead of an SSN, you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) have an individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). ITINs are issued by the Internal Revenue Service to noncitizens who cannot get an SSN.

No SSN. If you do not have a valid SSN, put "No" directly to the right of line 64 (Form 1040), line 41 (Form 1040A), or print "No" on line 8 (Form 1040EZ). You cannot claim the EIC.

Getting an SSN. If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) do not have an SSN, you can apply for one by filing Form SS-5 with the Social Security Administration.

Filing deadline approaching and still no SSN. If the filing deadline is approaching and you still do not have an SSN, you have two choices.

- 1) Request an automatic 4-month extension of time to file your return. You can get this extension by filing Form 4868, Application for Automatic Extension of Time to File U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. For more information, see the instructions for Form 4868.
- 2) File the return on time without claiming the EIC. After receiving the SSN, file an amended return, Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, claiming the EIC. Attach a filled-in Schedule EIC, Earned Income Credit, if you have a qualifying child.

Rule 2. Married Person's Filing Status

Rule 2 Your Filing Status Cannot Be "Married Filing Separately"

If you are married, you usually must file a joint return to claim the EIC. Your filing status cannot be "Married filing separately."

Spouse did not live with you. If you are married and your spouse did not live in your home at any time during the last 6 months of the year, you may be able to file as head of household, instead of married filing separately. In that case, you may be able to claim the EIC. For detailed information about filing as head of household, see Publication 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information.

Rule 3. Nonresident Alien

Rule 3 You Must Be a U.S. Citizen or Resident Alien All Year

You cannot claim the earned income credit if you are a nonresident alien for any part of the year, unless:

- 1) You are married to a U.S. citizen or a resident alien, and
- 2) You choose to be treated as a resident for all of 2002 by filing a joint return. If you need more information on making this choice, get Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens.

Note. If you make the choice in (2) above, you and your spouse are taxed on your worldwide income. You cannot claim any tax treaty benefits as a resident of a foreign country during a tax year in which the choice is in effect.

Rule 4. Foreign Earned Income

Rule 4 You Cannot File Form 2555 or Form 2555-EZ

You cannot claim the earned income credit if you file Form 2555, Foreign Earned Income, or Form 2555–EZ, Foreign Earned Income Exclusion. You file these forms to exclude income earned in foreign countries from your gross income, or to deduct or exclude a foreign housing amount. U.S. possessions are not foreign countries. See Publication 54, Tax Guide for U.S. Citizens and Resident Aliens Abroad, for more detailed information.

Rule 5.
Investment Income

Rule 5 Your Investment Income Must Be $2,550 or Less

You cannot claim the earned income credit unless your investment income is $2,550 or less. If your investment income is more than $2,550, you cannot claim the credit.

Form 1040EZ. If you file Form 1040EZ, your investment income is the total of the amount on line 2 and the amount of any tax-exempt interest you wrote to the right of the words "Form 1040EZ" on line 2.

Form 1040A. If you file Form 1040A, your investment income is the total of the amounts on lines 8a (taxable interest), 8b (tax-exempt interest), 9 (ordinary dividends), and 10 (capital gain distributions) on that form.

Form 1040. If you file Form 1040, use Worksheet 1, below, to figure your investment income

Worksheet 1: Investment Income If You Are Filing Form 1040

Form 1040

Inte	rest and Dividends
1.	Enter any amount from Form 1040, line 8a.		1.

	enter the amount from line 9 instead.)	6.
7.	Subtract line 6 of this worksheet from line 5 of this worksheet.

Pass	sive Activities
11.	Enter the total of any net income from passive activities
	(included on Schedule E, lines 26, 28a (col. (h)), 33a (col. (d)), and 39). (See instructions below for lines 11 and 12.)	11.	 _
12.	Enter the total of any losses from passive activities (included on Schedule E, lines 26, 28b (col. (g)), 33b (col. (c)), and 39).
	(See instructions below for lines 11 and 12.)	12.
13.	Combine the amounts on lines 11 and 12 of this worksheet. (If the result is less than zero, enter zero.)		13.
14.	Add the amounts on lines 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 10, and 13. Enter the total. This is your Investment Income.		14.

Instructions for line 4. To figure the amount to enter on line 4, start with the amount on line 6 of Form 8814. Multiply that amount by a percentage that is equal to any Alaska Permanent Fund dividends divided by the total amount of interest and dividend income on lines 1a and 2 of Form 8814. Subtract the result from the amount on line 6 of Form 8814.

Example. Your 10-year-old child has taxable interest income of \$500 and an Alaska Permanent Fund dividend of \$2,000. You choose to report this income on your return. You enter \$500 on line 1a of Form 8814, \$2,000 on line 2, and \$2,500 on line 4. You enter \$1,000 on line 6 of Form 8814 and line 21 of Form 1040. You figure the amount to enter on line 4 of this worksheet as follows: $$1,000 - ($1,000 \times ($2,000 \div $2,500)) = 200 .

Instructions for lines 11 and 12. In figuring the amount to enter on lines 11 and 12, do not take into account any royalty income (or loss) included on line 26 of Schedule E or any amount included in your earned income. To find out if the income on line 26 or line 39 of Schedule E is from a passive activity, see the Schedule E instructions. If any of the rental real estate income (or loss) included on Schedule E, line 26, is not from a passive activity, print "NPA" and the amount of that income (or loss) on the dotted line next to line 26.

Rule 6. Earned Income

Rule 6 You Must Have Earned Income

This credit is called the "earned income" credit because, to qualify, you must work and have earned income. If you are married and file a joint return, you meet this rule if at least one spouse works and has earned income. If you are an employee, earned income includes all the taxable income you get from your employer. Worksheet 2 on page 20 will help you figure the amount of your earned income. If you are self-employed or a statutory employee, you will figure your earned income on EIC Worksheet B on page 25.

Earned Income

Earned income includes:

- 1) Wages, salaries, and tips,
- 2) Net earnings from self-employment, and
- 3) Gross income received as a statutory employee.

Wages, salaries, and tips. Wages, salaries, and tips you receive for working are reported to you on Form W-2, box 1. You should report these on line 1 (Form 1040EZ) or line 7 (Forms 1040A and 1040).

Net earnings from self-employment. You may have net earnings from self-employment if:

- You own your business, or
- You are a minister or member of a religious order.

Statutory employee. You are a statutory employee if you receive a Form W-2 on which the "Statutory employee" box (box 13) is checked. You report your income and expenses as a statutory employee on Schedule C or C-EZ (Form 1040).

Strike benefits. Strike benefits paid by a union to its members are earned income.

Approved Form 4361 or Form 4029

This section is for persons who have an approved:

- Form 4361, Application for Exemption from Self-Employment Tax for Use by Ministers, Members of Religious Orders and Christian Science Practitioners, or
- Form 4029, Application for Exemption from Social Security and Medicare Taxes and Waiver of Benefits.

Each approved form exempts certain income from social security taxes. Each form is discussed in this section in terms of what is or is not earned income for purposes of the EIC.

Form 4361. Even if you have an approved Form 4361, amounts you received for performing ministerial duties as an employee count as earned income. This includes wages, salaries, tips, and other taxable employee compensation. Amounts you received for performing ministerial duties, but not as an employee, do not count as earned income. Examples include fees for performing marriages and honoraria for delivering speeches.

Form 4029. Even if you have an approved Form 4029, all wages, salaries, tips, and other taxable employee compensation count as earned income. However, amounts you received as a self-employed individual do not count as earned income. Also, in figuring earned income, do not subtract losses on Schedule C, C–EZ, or F from wages on line 7 of Form 1040.

Disability Benefits

If you retired on disability, benefits you receive under your employer's disability retirement plan are considered earned income until you reach minimum retirement age. Minimum retirement age generally is the earliest age at which you could have received a pension or annuity if you were not disabled. You must report your taxable disability payments on line 7 of either Form 1040 or Form 1040A until you reach minimum retirement age.

Beginning on the day after you reach minimum retirement age, payments you receive are taxable as a pension and are not considered earned income. Report taxable pension payments on Form 1040, lines 16a and 16b, or Form 1040A, lines 12a and 12b.

Disability insurance payments. Payments you received from a disability insurance policy that you paid the premiums for are not earned income. It does not matter whether you have reached minimum retirement age. If this policy is through your employer, the amount may be shown in box 12 of your Form W-2 with code "J."

Income That Is Not Earned Income

Examples of items that are NOT earned income include interest and dividends, pensions and annuities, social security and railroad retirement benefits (including disability benefits), alimony and child support, welfare benefits, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment compensation (insurance), nontaxable foster care payments, and veterans' benefits, including VA rehabilitation payments. Do NOT include any of these items in your earned income.

Earnings while an inmate. Amounts received for work performed while an inmate in a penal institution are not earned income when figuring the earned income credit. This includes amounts received through a work release program or while in a halfway house.

Workfare payments. Nontaxable workfare payments are not earned income for the EIC. These are cash payments certain people receive from a state or local agency that administers public assistance programs funded under the federal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program in return for certain work activities such as (1) work experience activities (including remodeling or repairing public housing) if sufficient private sector employment is not available, or (2) community service program activities.

Community property. If you are married, but qualify to file as head of household under special rules for married taxpayers living apart (see Rule 2), and live in a state that has community property laws, your earned income for the EIC does not include any amount earned by your spouse that is treated as belonging to you under those laws. That amount is not earned income for the EIC, even though you must include it in your gross income on your income tax return. Your earned income includes the entire amount you earned, even if part of it is treated as belonging to your spouse under your state's community property laws.

Chapter 2. Rules If You Have a Qualifying Child

If you have met all the rules in chapter 1, use this chapter to see if you have a qualifying child. This chapter discusses Rules 7 through 9. You must meet all three of those rules, in addition to the rules in chapters 1 and 4, to qualify for the earned income credit with a qualifying child.

Note. You must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A to claim the EIC with a qualifying child. (You cannot file Form 1040EZ.) You must also complete Schedule EIC and attach it to your return. If you meet all the rules in chapter 1 and this chapter, read chapter 4 to find out what to do next.

No qualifying child. If you do not meet Rule 7, you do not have a qualifying child. Read chapter 3 to find out if you can get the earned income credit without a qualifying child.

Rule 7. Qualifying Child

Rule 7 Your Child Must Meet the Relationship, Age, and Residency Tests

Your child is a qualifying child if your child meets three tests. The three tests are:

- 1) Relationship,
- 2) Age, and
- 3) Residency.

The three tests are illustrated in Figure 2 on page 11. The paragraphs that follow contain more information about each test.

Relationship Test

Your child must be either your son, daughter, adopted child, stepchild, grandchild, or eligible foster child. Your brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister (or the child or grandchild of your brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister) may also be a qualifying child if you care for this individual as you would your own child. The following definitions clarify the relationship test.

Adopted child. Your adopted child includes a child placed with you for adoption by an authorized placement agency, even if the adoption is not final.

An authorized placement agency includes any person or court authorized by state law to place children for legal adoption.

Grandchild. For the EIC, this means any descendant of a son, daughter, stepchild, or adopted child. For example, a grandchild includes your great-grandchild, great-great-grandchild, etc.

Child not a dependent. Your child does not have to be your dependent to be a qualifying child, unless he or she is married.

Married child. If your child was married at the end of the year, he or she does not meet the relationship test unless either of these two situations applies to you:

1) You can claim the child's exemption, or

- 2) The reason you cannot claim the child's exemption is that you gave that right to your child's other parent:
 - a) When you completed Form 8332 or a similar written statement, or
 - b) In a pre-1985 agreement (such as a separation agreement or divorce decree).

Relationship A qualifying child is a child who is your . . . Brother* Son Stepchild Grandchild Stepsister* Daughter Sister* Stepbrother* Adopted child Foster child (see Eligible foster child on this page) * This relative (or his or her child or grandchild) qualifies if you care for the individual as you would your own child. Age was at the end of 2002 . . . Under age 19 OR Under age 24 and a student OR Permanently and totally disabled at any time during the year, regardless of age. Residency who... Lived with you in the United States for more than half of 2002.

Eligible foster child. For the EIC, a person is your eligible foster child if both of the following are true.

- The child is placed with you by an authorized placement agency. (An authorized placement agency includes a state or local government agency or court. It also includes a tax-exempt organization licensed by a state.)
- You cared for that child as you would your own child.

Example: Eligible foster child

Example: Child not under age 19 Example. Debbie, who is 12 years old, was placed in your care two years ago by an authorized agency responsible for placing children in foster homes. You care for her as you would your own child. Debbie is your eligible foster child.

Age Test

Your child must be:

- 1) Under age 19 at the end of 2002,
- 2) A full-time student under age 24 at the end of 2002, or
- 3) Permanently and totally disabled at any time during 2002, regardless of age.

The following example and definitions clarify the age test.

Example. Your son turned 19 on December 10. Unless he was disabled or a full-time student, he is not a qualifying child because, at the end of the year, he was not under age 19.

Full-time student. A full-time student is a student who is enrolled for the number of hours or courses the school considers to be full-time attendance.

Student defined. To qualify as a student, your child must be, during some part of each of any 5 calendar months during the calendar year:

- 1) A full-time student at a school that has a regular teaching staff, course of study, and regular student body, or
- A student taking a full-time, on-farm training course given by a school described in (1), or a state, county, or local government.

The 5 calendar months need not be consecutive.

School defined. A school can be an elementary school, junior or senior high school, college, university, or technical, trade, or mechanical school. However, on-the-job training courses, correspondence schools, and night schools do not count as schools for the EIC. (But see Night school, later.)

Vocational high school students. Students who work in co-op jobs in private industry as a part of a school's regular course of classroom and practical training are considered full-time students.

Night school. Your child is not a full-time student if he or she attends school only at night. However, full-time attendance at a school may include some attendance at night as part of a full-time course of study.

Permanently and totally disabled. Your child is permanently and totally disabled if both of the following apply.

- He or she cannot engage in any substantial gainful activity because of a physical or mental condition.
- 2) A doctor determines the condition has lasted or can be expected to last continuously for at least a year or can lead to death.

Residency Test

Your child must have lived with you in the United States for more than half of 2002. The following definitions clarify the residency test.

United States. This means one of the 50 states and the District of Columbia. It does not include U.S. possessions, such as Guam and Puerto Rico.

Homeless shelter. Your home can be any location where you regularly live. You do not need a traditional home. For example, if your child lived with you for more than half the year in one or more homeless shelters, your child meets the residency test.

Military personnel stationed outside the United States. U.S. military personnel stationed outside the United States on extended active duty are considered to live in the United States during that duty period for purposes of the EIC.

Extended active duty. Extended active duty means you are called or ordered to duty for an indefinite period or for a period of more than 90 days. Once you begin serving your extended active duty, you are still considered to have been on extended active duty even if you do not serve more than 90 days.

Birth or death of child. A child who was born or died in 2002 is treated as having lived with you for all of 2002 if your home was the child's home the entire time he or she was alive in 2002.

Temporary absences. Count time that you or your child is away from home on a temporary absence due to a special circumstance as time lived at home. Examples of a special circumstance include:

- Illness,
- · School attendance,
- · Detention in a juvenile facility,
- · Business,
- · Vacation, and
- · Military service.

Kidnapped child. A kidnapped child is treated as living with you for more than half of the year if the child lived with you for more than half the part of the year before the date of the kidnapping. The child must be presumed by law enforcement authorities to have been kidnapped by someone who is not a member of your family or the child's family. This treatment applies for all years until the child is returned. However, the last year this treatment can apply is the earlier of:

- 1) The year there is a determination that the child is dead, or
- The year the child would have reached age 18.

If your qualifying child has been kidnapped and meets these requirements, enter "KC," instead of a number, on line 6 of Schedule EIC.

Social security number.

Your qualifying child must have a valid social security number (SSN), unless the child was born and died in 2002. You cannot claim the EIC on the basis of a qualifying child if:

- Your qualifying child's SSN is missing from your tax return or is incorrect,
- Your qualifying child's social security card says "Not valid for employment" and was issued for use in getting a federally funded benefit, or
- Instead of an SSN, your qualifying child has:
 - An individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), which is issued to a noncitizen who cannot get an SSN, or

An adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), which is issued to adopting parents who cannot get an SSN for the child being adopted until the adoption is final.

If you have two qualifying children and only one has a valid SSN, you can claim the EIC only on the basis of that child. For more information about SSNs, see Rule 1.

Rule 8.
Qualifying Child of More Than One Person

Rule 8 Your Qualifying Child Cannot Be Used By More Than One Person To Claim the EIC

Sometimes a child meets the rules to be a qualifying child of more than one person. However, only one person can treat that child as a qualifying child and claim the EIC using that child. The paragraphs that follow will help you decide who can claim the EIC when more than one person has the same qualifying child.

You can choose which person will claim the EIC. If you and someone else have the same qualifying child, you and the other person(s) can decide who will claim the credit using that qualifying child. But if you and the other person(s) cannot agree and more than one person claims the credit using the same child, the tie-breaker rule (explained in the next paragraph) applies. If the other person is your spouse and you file a joint return, this rule does not apply.

Under the tie-breaker rule, the child can be treated as a qualifying child only by:

- 1) The parent, if only one of the persons is the child's parent,
- 2) The parent with whom the child lived for the longest period of time during the year, if two of the persons are parents of the child and they do not file a joint return together.
- 3) The parent with the highest adjusted gross income (AGI) if the child lived with each parent for the same amount of time during the tax year, and they do not file a joint return together.
- 4) The person with the highest AGI, if none of the persons is the child's parent.

If another person claims the EIC using this child. If your qualifying child is treated under this rule as the qualifying child of another person for 2002, you cannot take the EIC using this qualifying child. You may be able to take the EIC using a different qualifying child, but you cannot take the EIC for people who do not have a qualifying child. If you do not have another qualifying child, STOP; you cannot take the EIC. Put "No" beside line 64 (Form 1040) or line 41 (Form 1040A).

Examples. The following examples may help you in determining whether you can claim the EIC when you and someone else have the same qualifying child.

Example 1. You and your 2-year-old son lived with your mother all year. You are 25 years old. Your only income was $9,000 from a part-time job. Your mother's only income was $20,000 from her job. Your son is a qualifying child of both you and your mother because he meets the relationship, age, and residency tests for both you and your mother. However, only one of you can use him to claim the EIC. You and your mother may choose which of you will treat the child as a qualifying child to claim the EIC. However, if you and she disagree and both use him to claim the EIC, you as the child's parent will be the only one allowed to claim the credit using this child.

Example 2. The facts are the same as in Example 1, except that you also have two other young children who lived with you and your mother and are qualifying children of both you and your mother. Only one of you can use each child to claim the EIC. However, you and your mother can split the three qualifying children between you. For example, you can use one child to claim the EIC and your mother can use the other two.

Examples: Child lived with parent and grandparent Example 3. The facts are the same as in Example 1, except that you are only 18 years old. This means you are a qualifying child of your mother. Because of Rule 9, you cannot claim the EIC. Only your mother may be able to treat your son as a qualifying child to claim the EIC.

Example: Divorced parents

Example 4. You, your husband, and your 10-year-old son lived together until July 1, 2002, when your husband moved out of the household. In July and August, your son lived with your husband. In September and October, the boy lived with you. On November 1, 2002, you and your husband were divorced. For the rest of the year, your son lived with your ex-husband, who was given custody. Your son is a qualifying child of both you and your ex-husband because your son lived with each of you for more than half the year and because he met the relationship and age tests for both of you. You earned $11,000 during the year and your ex-husband earned $25,000. Neither of you had any other income.

You and your ex-husband may choose which of you will treat the child as a qualifying child to claim the EIC. However, if you and he are unable to agree and both use the child to claim the EIC, only your ex-husband will be allowed to claim the credit using this child. This is because, during 2002, the child lived with him longer than with you. You cannot claim the EIC for persons either with or without a qualifying child.

Example: Unmarried Parents Example 5. You, your 5-year-old son, and your son's father lived together all year. You and your son's father are not married. Your son is a qualifying child of both you and his father because he meets the relationship, age, and residency tests for both you and his father. You earned $8,000 and your son's father earned $18,000. Neither of you had any other income. You and your son's father may choose which of you will treat the child as a qualifying child to claim the EIC. However, if you and he are unable to agree and both use the child to claim the EIC, only the father will be allowed to claim the credit using this child. This is because his AGI ($18,000) was more than your AGI ($8,000). You cannot claim the EIC for persons either with or without a qualifying child.

Example: Child did not live with a parent Example 6. You and your 7-year-old niece lived with your mother all year. You care for your niece as you would your own child. You are 25 years old, and your only income was $9,300 from a part-time job. Your mother's only income was $15,000 from her job. Your niece is a qualifying child of both you and your mother because she meets the relationship, age, and residency tests for both you and your mother. However, only one of you can treat her as a qualifying child to claim the EIC. You and your mother may choose which of you will use the child to claim the EIC. However, if you and she are unable to agree and both use the child to claim the EIC, only your mother will be allowed to claim the credit using this child. This is because her AGI ($15,000) is higher than your AGI ($9,300).

Rule 9.Qualifying Child of Another Person

Rule 9 You Cannot Be a Qualifying Child of Another Person

You are a qualifying child of another person (your parent, guardian, foster parent, etc.) if all of the following statements are true.

1) You are that person's son, daughter, adopted child, stepchild, grandchild, or eligible foster child. Or, you are that person's brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister (or the child or grandchild of that person's brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister) for whom that person cares as his or her own child.

- 2) At the end of the year you were under age 19, or under age 24 and a full-time student, or any age if you were permanently and totally disabled at any time during the year.
- 3) You lived with that person in the United States for more than half of the year.

For more details about the tests to be a qualifying child, see Rule 7.

If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) are a qualifying child of another person, you cannot claim the EIC. This is true even if the person for whom you are a qualifying child does not claim the EIC or meet all of the rules to claim the EIC. Put "No" beside line 64 (Form 1040) or line 41 (Form 1040A).

Example:Qualifying child of another person

Example. You and your daughter lived with your mother all year. You are 22 years old and attended a trade school full time. You had a part-time job and earned $5,700. You had no other income. Because you meet the relationship, age, and residency tests, you are a qualifying child of your mother. She can claim the EIC if she meets all the other requirements. Because you are your mother's qualifying child, you cannot claim the EIC. This is so even if your mother cannot or does not claim the EIC.

Chapter 3. Rules If You Do Not Have a Qualifying Child

A R

Use this chapter if you do not have a qualifying child and have met all the rules in chapter 1. This chapter discusses Rules 10 through 13. You must meet all four of those rules, in addition to the rules in chapters 1 and 4, to qualify for the earned income credit without a qualifying child.

Note. You can file Form 1040, Form 1040A, or Form 1040EZ to claim the EIC without a qualifying child. If you meet all the rules in chapter 1 and this chapter, read chapter 4 to find out what to do next.

Rule 10. Age

Rule 10 You Must Be at Least Age 25 but Under Age 65

You must be at least age 25 but under age 65 at the end of 2002. If you are married filing a joint return, either you or your spouse must be at least age 25 but under age 65 at the end of 2002. It does not matter which spouse meets the age test, as long as one of the spouses does.

If neither you nor your spouse meets the age test, you cannot claim the EIC. Put "No" directly to the right of line 64 (Form 1040) or line 41 (Form 1040A), or on line 8 (Form 1040EZ).

Examples: Age

Example 1. You are age 28 and unmarried. You meet the age test.

Example 2. You are married and filing a joint return. You are age 23 and your spouse is age 27. You meet the age test because your spouse is at least age 25 but under age 65.

Rule 11. Dependent of Another Person

Rule 11 You Cannot Be the Dependent of Another Person

If you are not filing a joint return, you meet this rule if:

- You checked box 6a on Form 1040 or 1040A, or
- You checked the "No" box on line 5 of Form 1040EZ.

If you are filing a joint return, you meet this rule if:

- You checked both box 6a and box 6b on Form 1040 or 1040A. or
- You and your spouse checked the "No" box on line 5 of Form 1040EZ.

If you are not sure whether someone else can claim you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) as a dependent, get Publication 501 and read the rules for claiming a dependent. If someone else can claim you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) as a dependent on his or her return, but does not, you still cannot claim the credit.

Examples: Dependent of another person

Example 1. In 2002, you were age 25, single, and living at home with your parents. You worked and were not a student. You earned $7,500. Your parents cannot claim you as a dependent. When you file your return, you claim an exemption for yourself by checking the "No" box on line 5 of your Form 1040EZ. You meet this rule.

Example 2. The facts are the same as in Example 1, except that you earned $2,000. Your parents can claim you as a dependent but decide not to. You do not meet this rule. You cannot claim the credit because your parents could have claimed you as a dependent.

Rule 12. Qualifying Child of Another Person

Rule 12 You Cannot Be a Qualifying Child of Another Person

You are a qualifying child of another person (your parent, guardian, foster parent, etc.) if all of the following statements are true.

- You are that person's son, daughter, adopted child, stepchild, grandchild, or eligible foster child. Or, you are that person's brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister or the child or grandchild of that person's brother, sister, stepbrother, or stepsister) for whom that person cares as his or her own child.
- 2) At the end of the year you were under age 19, or under age 24 and a full-time student, or any age if you were permanently and totally disabled at any time during the year.
- 3) You lived with that person in the United States for more than half of the year.

For more details about the tests to be a qualifying child, see Rule 7.

If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) are a qualifying child of another person, you cannot claim the EIC. This is true even if the person for whom you are a qualifying child does not claim the EIC or meet all of the rules to claim the EIC. Put "No" directly to the right of line 64 (Form 1040) or line 41 (Form 1040A), or on line 8 (Form 1040EZ).

Example:Qualifying child of another person

Example. You lived with your mother all year. You are age 26 and permanently and totally disabled. Your only income was from a community center where you went twice a week to answer telephones. You earned $1,500 for the year. Because you meet the relationship, age, and residency tests, you are a qualifying child of your mother. She can claim the EIC if she meets all the other requirements. Because you are a qualifying child of your mother, you cannot claim the EIC. This is so even if your mother cannot or does not claim the EIC.

Rule 13. Main Home in United States

Rule 13 You Must Have Lived in the United States More Than Half of the Year

Your home (and your spouse's if filing a joint return) must have been in the United States for more than half the year.

If it was not, put "No" directly to the right of line 64 (Form 1040) or line 41 (Form 1040A), or on line 8 (Form 1040EZ).

United States. This means the 50 states and the District of Columbia. It does not include U.S. possessions, such as Guam and Puerto Rico.

Homeless shelter. Your home can be any location where you regularly live. You do not need a traditional home. If you lived in one or more homeless shelters in the United States for more than half the year, you meet this rule.

Military personnel stationed outside the United States. U.S. military personnel stationed outside the United States on extended active duty (defined on page 13) are considered to live in the United States during that duty period for purposes of the EIC.

Chapter 4. Figuring and Claiming the EIC

You must meet two more rules to be eligible to claim the EIC.

You must figure two amounts to see if you meet the rules in this chapter. You also need to know these amounts to figure the amount of your EIC.

- Adjusted gross income (AGI).
- 2) Earned income.

If all your income is from employment you can use the worksheet on page 20 to figure your earned income. Otherwise, you can figure your earned income using EIC Worksheet B on page 25.

Rule 14. AGI Limits

Rule 14 Your Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) Must Be Less

- $33,178 ($34,178 for married filing jointly) if you have more than one qualifying child,
- $29,201 ($30,201 for married filing jointly) if you have one qualifying child, or
- $11,060 ($12,060 for married filing jointly) if you do not have a qualifying child.

Adjusted gross income (AGI). AGI is the amount on line 4 of Form 1040EZ, line 22 of Form 1040A, or line 36 of Form 1040.

If your AGI is equal to or more than the applicable limit listed above, you cannot claim the EIC. You do not need to read the rest of this publication. You can go back and finish the rest of your tax return.

Example. Your AGI is $29,500, you are single, and you have one qualifying child. You cannot claim the EIC because your AGI is not less than $29,201. However, if your filing status was married filing jointly, you might be able to claim the EIC because your AGI is less than $30,201.

Community property. If you are married, but qualify to file as head of household under special rules for married taxpayers living apart (see Rule 2), and live in a state that has community property laws, your AGI includes that portion of both your and your spouse's wages that you are required to include in gross income. This is different from the community property rules that apply under Rule 6.

Example: AGI exceeds limit Rule 15. Earned Income Limits

Rule 15 Your Earned Income Must Be Less Than:

- $33,178 ($34,178 for married filing jointly) if you have more than one qualifying child,
- $29,201 ($30,201 for married filing jointly) if you have one qualifying child, or
- $11,060 ($12,060 for married filing jointly) if you do not have a qualifying child.

Earned income. Earned income generally means wages, salaries, tips, and other taxable employee compensation, and net earnings from self-employment. Earned income is explained in detail in Rule 6 in chapter 1. If you are an employee, you can use Worksheet 2 to figure your earned income from employment.

However, if you are self-employed, a statutory employee, or a church employee who files Schedule SE (Form 1040), you will not know the amount of your earned income until you fill out Part 4 of EIC Worksheet B on page 25.

Church employee. In this publication, this term means an employee (other than a minister or member of a religious order) of a church or qualified church-controlled organization that is exempt from employer social security and Medicare taxes.

Tip: If you want the IRS to figure your income tax, see Publication 967, The IRS Will Figure Your Tax.

IRS Will Figure the EIC for You

The IRS will figure your EIC for you if you follow the instructions in Figure 3 below. If you want to figure the credit yourself, use EIC Worksheet A or B, whichever applies.

If you have a qualifying child, complete and attach Schedule EIC (discussed on page 23).

- 1 Print "EIC" directly to the right of the EIC line on your tax return. (This is line 64 (Form 1040), line 41 (Form 1040A), or line 8 (Form 1040EZ).) Then, if you have any of the situations listed later under Special instructions for clergy, prison inmates, and deferred compensation plans, follow those instructions.
- 2 Complete all other parts of your return that apply to you (including line 59 (Form 1040) or line 37 (Form 1040A) to report advance payments of the EIC).
- 3 Do not fill in lines that relate to your total payments, overpayment, refund, or amount you owe (lines 69, 70, 71a, and 73 (Form 1040), lines 43, 44, 45a, and 47 (Form 1040A), or lines 9, 11a, and 12 (Form 1040EZ)).

Please do not ask the IRS to figure your EIC unless you are eligible for it. To be eligible, you must meet the rules in this chapter as well as the rules in chapter 1 and either chapter 2 or chapter 3, whichever applies to you. If your credit was reduced or disallowed for any year after 1996, the rules in chapter 5 may apply as well.

You cannot report advance payments of EIC on Form 1040EZ. If you received advance payments of EIC during 2002, you must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A.

Special instructions for clergy, prison inmates, and deferred compensation plans. Use the following special instructions if one of the following situations applies to you.

Minister or member of a religious order. If you are filing Schedule SE and line 2 of that schedule includes an amount that is also included on line 7 (Form 1040), print "Clergy" directly to the right of line 64 (Form 1040). Also show the amount included on both lines (for example, "Clergy $800").

Inmates. If you were an inmate in a penal institution and the total on line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A) or line 1 (Form 1040EZ) includes an amount paid to you for work you performed while an inmate, print "PRI" and the amount paid on the dotted line next to line 7 (Form 1040), in the space to the left of line 7 (Form 1040A), or in the space to the right of the words "W-2 form(s)" on line 1 (Form 1040EZ).

Deferred compensation plans. If the total on line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A) or line 1 (Form 1040EZ) includes a pension or annuity you received from a nonqualified deferred compensation plan or a nongovernmental section 457 plan, put "DFC" and the amount on the dotted line next to line 7 (Form 1040), in the space to the left of line 7 (Form 1040A) or to the right of the words "W-2 form(s)" on line 1 (Form 1040EZ). This amount may be reported in box 11 of your Form W-2. If you received such an amount but box 11 is blank, contact your employer for the amount of the pension or annuity.

Note. If you do not have a qualifying child, STOP here and complete your Form 1040, Form 1040A, or Form 1040EZ and mail it to the IRS. If you do have a qualifying child, see Schedule EIC, later.

How To Figure the EIC Yourself

You can use the EIC worksheet in your tax package or EIC Worksheet A or B at the end of this chapter.

If you have a qualifying child, complete and attach Schedule EIC (discussed on page 23).

How To Use EIC Worksheets A and B

Use EIC Worksheet A (page 24) or EIC Worksheet B (pages 25–26) to figure the amount of your EIC. This section explains how to use these worksheets and how to report the EIC on your return.

EIC Worksheet A. Use EIC Worksheet A if you are not self-employed, a member of the clergy or a church employee who files Schedule SE, or a statutory employee filing Schedule C or C–EZ.

EIC Worksheet B. Use EIC Worksheet B if you are self-employed, a member of the clergy or a church employee who files Schedule SE, or a statutory employee filing Schedule C or C–EZ. If any of the following situations apply to you, read the paragraph and then complete EIC Worksheet B.

Net earnings from self-employment $400 or more. If your net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more, be sure to correctly fill out Schedule SE (Form 1040) and pay the proper amount of self-employment tax. If you do not, you may not get all the EIC you are entitled to.

When to use the optional methods of figuring net earnings. Using the optional methods on Schedule SE to figure your net earnings from self-employment may qualify you for the EIC or give you a larger credit. If your net earnings (without using the optional methods) are less than $1,600, see Publication 533, Self-Employment Tax, and the instructions for Schedule SE, for details about the optional methods.

Tip: Keep your tax return handy while you complete EIC Worksheet A or B.

When both spouses have self-employment income. You must complete both Parts 1 and 2 of EIC Worksheet B if all of the following conditions apply to you.

- 1) You are married filing a joint return.
- 2) Both you and your spouse have income from self-employment.
- You or your spouse files a Schedule SE and the other spouse does not file Schedule SE.

Statutory employees. Statutory employees report wages and expenses on Schedule C or C–EZ. They do not file Schedule SE. If you are a statutory employee, enter amounts from Schedule C or C–EZ in Part 3 when you complete EIC Worksheet B.

Special Instructions for Clergy, Prison Inmates, and Deferred Compensation Plans

Use the following special instructions if one of the following situations applies to you.

Minister or member of a religious order. If you are filing Schedule SE and line 2 of the schedule includes an amount that is also included on line 7 (Form 1040), print "Clergy" directly to the right of line 64 (Form 1040). Also show the amount included on both lines (for example, "Clergy $800").

Inmates. If you were an inmate in a penal institution and the total on line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A) or line 1 (Form 1040EZ) includes an amount paid to you for work you performed while an inmate, print "PRI" and the amount paid on the dotted line next to line 7 (Form 1040), in the space to the left of line 7 (Form 1040A), or in the space to the right of the words "W-2 form(s)" on line 1 (Form 1040EZ).

Deferred compensation plans. If the total on line 7 (Form 1040 or Form 1040A) or line 1 (Form 1040EZ) includes a pension or annuity you received from a nonqualified deferred compensation plan or a nongovernmental section 457 plan, put "DFC" and the amount on the dotted line next to line 7 (Form 1040), in the space to the left of line 7, (Form 1040A), or to the right of the words "W–2 form(s)" on line 1 (Form 1040EZ). This amount may be reported in box 11 of your Form W–2. If you received such an amount but box 11 is blank, contact your employer for the amount of the pension or annuity.

Schedule EIC

You must complete and attach Schedule EIC to your tax return if you have a qualifying child and are claiming the EIC. Schedule EIC provides IRS with information about your qualifying children, including their names, ages, SSNs, relationship to you, and the amount of time they lived with you during the year. An example of a filled-in Schedule EIC is shown on page 34.

If you are required to complete and attach Schedule EIC but do not, it will take longer to process your return and issue your refund.

Do not use this worksheet if you are s Schedule SE because you were a men

All Filers Using EIC Worksheet A

Do not use this worksheet if you are self-employed, or you are filing Schedule SE because you were a member of the clergy or you had church employee income, or you are filing Schedule C or C-EZ as a statutory employee. Instead, use EIC Worksheet B.

- 1. Enter your earned income from Worksheet 2.

If your EIC was reduced or disallowed for any year after 1996, see chapter 5 to find out if you must file Form 8862 to take the credit for 2002.

Chapter 5. Disallowance of the EIC

If your earned income credit (EIC) for any year after 1996 was denied (disallowed) or reduced by the IRS, you may need to complete an additional form to claim the credit for 2002.

This chapter is for people whose earned income credit (EIC) for any year after 1996 was denied or reduced by the IRS. If this applies to you and you want to claim the credit for 2002, you may need to complete Form 8862, Information To Claim Earned Income Credit After Disallowance, and attach it to your 2002 return. This chapter explains when you need to attach Form 8862. For more information, see Form 8862 and its instructions.

This chapter also explains the rules for certain people who cannot claim the EIC for a period of years because their EIC was denied or reduced.

Form 8862

If your EIC for any year after 1996 was denied or reduced for any reason other than a mathematical or clerical error, you must attach a completed Form 8862 to your next tax return if you wish to claim the EIC.

However, do not file Form 8862 if:

- 1) You are claiming the EIC without a qualifying child for 2002, and
- Your EIC for the earlier year was reduced or disallowed solely because the IRS determined that one or both of the children listed on your Schedule EIC were not your qualifying children for that year.

The date on which your EIC was denied and the date on which you file your 2002 return affect whether you need to attach Form 8862 to your 2002 return or to a later return. The following examples demonstrate whether Form 8862 is required for 2002 or 2003.

Example 1. You filed your 2001 tax return in March 2002 and claimed the EIC with a qualifying child. The IRS questioned the EIC, and you were unable to prove the child was a qualifying child. In September 2002, you received a statutory notice of deficiency telling you that an adjustment would be assessed unless you filed a petition in the Tax Court within 90 days. You did not act on this notice within 90 days. Therefore, your EIC was denied in December 2002. If you wish to claim the EIC with a qualifying child on your 2002 return, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to that return. However, if you wish to claim the EIC without a qualifying child on your 2002 return, you do not need to file Form 8862.

Example: Form 8862 required for 2002

Example: Form 8862 required for 2003

Example 2. The facts are the same as in Example 1, except that you received the statutory notice of deficiency in February 2003. Because the 90-day period referred to in the statutory notice is not over when you are ready to file your return for 2002, you should not attach Form 8862 to your 2002 return. However, if you wish to claim the EIC with a qualifying child for 2003, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to your return for that year. If you wish to claim the EIC without a qualifying child for 2003, you do not need to file Form 8862.

Exception for mathematical or clerical errors. If your EIC was denied or reduced as a result of a mathematical or clerical error, do not attach Form 8862 to your next tax return. For example, if your arithmetic is incorrect, the IRS can correct it. If you do not provide a correct social security number, the IRS can deny the EIC. These kinds of errors are called mathematical or clerical errors.

Omission of Form 8862. If you are required to attach Form 8862 to your 2002 tax return, and you claim the EIC without attaching a completed Form 8862, your claim will be automatically denied. This is considered a mathematical or clerical error. You will not be permitted to claim the EIC without a completed Form 8862.

Additional documentation may be required. You may have to provide the IRS with additional documentation before a refund relating to the EIC you claim is released to you, even if you attach a properly completed Form 8862 to your return.

Are You Prohibited From Claiming the EIC for a Period of Years?

If your EIC for any year after 1996 was denied and it was determined that your error was due to reckless or intentional disregard of the EIC rules, then you cannot claim the EIC for the next 2 years. If your error was due to fraud, then you cannot claim the EIC for the next 10 years. The date on which your EIC was denied and the date on which you file your 2002 return affect the years for which you are prohibited from claiming the EIC. The following examples demonstrate which years you are prohibited from claiming the EIC.

Examples: Cannot claim EIC for 2 years

Example 3. You claimed the EIC on your 2001 tax return, which you filed in March 2002. In October 2002, the IRS denied your claim and determined that your error was due to reckless or intentional disregard of the EIC rules. You cannot claim the EIC for tax year 2002 or 2003. If you wish to claim the EIC on your return for 2004, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to your return for that year.

Example 4. The facts are the same as in Example 3, except that the IRS did not disallow your 2001 EIC until after you filed your 2002 return. You cannot claim the EIC for tax year 2003 or 2004. If you wish to claim the EIC on your return for 2005, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to your return for that year.

Example: Cannot claim EIC for 10 years

Example 5. You claimed the EIC on your 2001 tax return, which you filed in February 2002. In December 2002, the IRS denied your claim and determined that your error was due to fraud. You cannot claim the EIC for tax years 2002 through 2011. If you wish to claim the EIC on your return for 2012, you must complete and attach Form 8862 to your return for that year.

Chapter 6. Advance Payment of EIC in 2003

You can receive part of your 2003 EIC in your paycheck by completing a form and giving it to your employer.

Do you expect to be eligible for the EIC this year (2003) and to have a qualifying child? If so, you can choose to get payments of the EIC in your paycheck now instead of waiting to get your EIC all at once in 2004 when you file your tax return for the year 2003. These payments are called advance EIC payments. This chapter explains how you may be able to get them this year and how to report them on your tax return.

Example. In March of 2003, John and Tom worked together. Tom told John that he gets $40 added to his paycheck each month because of the earned income credit. John would like to get an extra amount every month too. John needs to find out if he can claim the EIC in 2003. He should answer the questions in Step 1 below and then, if he is eligible for advance EIC payments, go to Step 2.

Note. Chapters 1 through 5 of this publication are about the EIC you claim on your 2002 tax return. This chapter is about the EIC you expect to claim on your 2003 tax return.

Step 1 Find Out If You Are Eligible for Advance Payments of the EIC

Answer the following three questions to see if you are eligible for advance payments of the EIC.

Note. When the question says "expect," you do not have to know that you will be able to answer "Yes" when you file your tax return. You can only make a best guess that you will be able to answer "Yes."

Question 1

Do you expect to have a qualifying child? (See the definition of qualifying child beginning on page 10.)

___ Yes.

Go to Question 2.

No STOR

You cannot get advance payments of the EIC.

Ouestion 2.

Do you expect that your earned income and adjusted gross income (AGI) will each be less than about $30,000 ($31,000 if you expect to file a joint return for 2003)?

Yes

Go to Question 3.

No. STOP

You cannot get advance payments of the EIC.

Tip: See the 2003 Form W-5 for the exact amounts. Earned income and AGI are explained on pages 8, 19 and 22.

Example:

EIC works

How advance payment of

Tip:

If you are a farm worker paid on a daily basis, your employer is not required to pay you advance EIC. Also, you cannot get advance EIC unless your wages are subject to federal income tax, social security tax, or Medicare tax withholding.

Ougstion 2
Question 3.

Do you expect to be eligible for the EIC in 2003 as explained in chapters 1, 2, 3, and 4?

Yes.
Go to Step 2.
No. (STOP)
You cannot get advance payments of the EIC.

Not Sure.

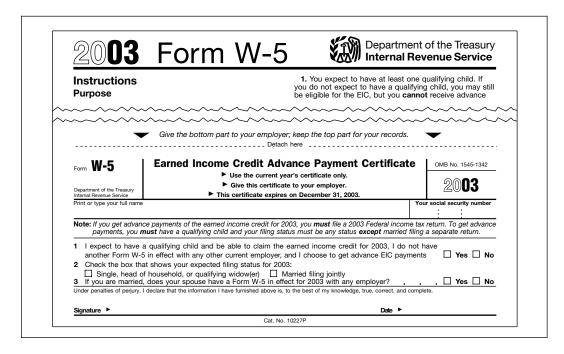

Read the rules in chapters 1, 2, 3, and 4 and/or the instructions for Form W-5. Then answer "Yes" or "No."

Note. The rules in chapters 1, 2, 3, and 4 are expected to be basically the same for 2003, except that you will be allowed to have more earned income and adjusted gross income, and possibly more investment income. The correct amounts for 2003 are in the instructions for the 2003 Form W-5.

Step 2 Complete Form W-5 and Give It to Your Employer

If you answered "Yes" to all the questions in Step 1, and you wish to get part of your EIC now, you must give your employer a Form W–5 for 2003.

After you have read the instructions and completed Form W-5, give the lower part of the form to your employer. Keep the top part for your records. A part of a blank Form W-5 is shown here.

You may get only part of your EIC during the year in advance payments. You will get the rest of the EIC you are entitled to when you file your tax return in 2004 and claim the EIC.

Frequently Asked Questions About Form W-5

- 1. How do I get Form W–5? Ask your employer for the form. Or, see How To Get Tax Help on page 48.
- 2. What should I do if I have more than one employer? Give a Form W-5 to only one employer.
- 3. Can I give my employer a Form W-5 if my spouse has given her employer a Form W-5? Yes.
- 4. How often do I have to file Form W–5? The 2003 Form W–5 you give to your employer is valid until December 31, 2003. If you expect to be eligible for EIC in 2004 and you want to receive advance payments, you must give your employer a new Form W–5 in 2004. Do this each year you expect to be eligible for the EIC.
- 5. What should I do if my situation changes after I give Form W-5 to my employer? Give your employer a new Form W-5 if any situation shown in the following table applies to you for 2003.

Table 2. Changes to Advance EIC Status

IF	THEN you must give your employer a new Form W-5. To indicate your change, check
You no longer have a qualifying child	"No" on line 1.
You are no longer eligible for the EIC	"No" on line 1.
You no longer want advance payments	"No" on line 1.
Your spouse files Form W-5 with his or her employer	"Yes" on line 3.

Step 3 How To Report Advance Payments of EIC

If you received advance payments of EIC in 2002, see Important Reminders on page 3 for information on reporting these payments.

If you receive advance payments of EIC in 2003, you must file a 2003 tax return (even if you would not otherwise have to file) to report the payments and claim any additional EIC. Box 9 of your Form W-2 will show the amount you received. See the instructions for Form 1040 or Form 1040A for the line number on which you report advance payments of EIC.

If you receive advance payments of EIC in 2003, and you later find out that you are not eligible for some or all of them, you still must report them on your tax return.

You cannot use Form 1040EZ to report your advance payments. You must file Form 1040 or Form 1040A.

Chapter 7.

Detailed Examples

The next few pages contain four detailed examples (with a filled-in Schedule EIC and EIC Worksheets) that may be helpful if you have questions about claiming the EIC.

Example: Cynthia and Jerry Grey have two children and are both employed.

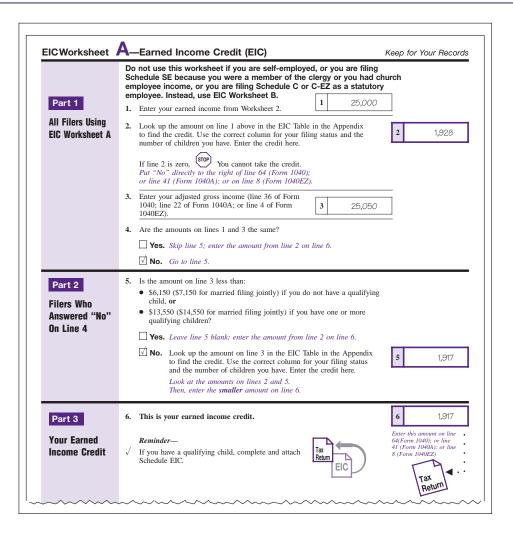

Example 1. Cynthia and Jerry Grey

Cynthia and Jerry Grey have two children, Kirk, age 8, and Susanne, age 6. The children lived with Cynthia and Jerry for all of 2002. Cynthia earned wages of $15,000 and Jerry had wages of $10,000. The Greys received $50 in interest on their savings account. They had no other income in 2002.

Cynthia and Jerry have the 2002 Form 1040A and instructions. They want to see if they qualify for the EIC, so they follow the steps in the instructions for line 41.

- Step 1. The amount Cynthia and Jerry entered on Form 1040A, line 21, was $25,050. They both have valid social security numbers (SSNs). They will file a joint return. Neither Cynthia nor Jerry is a nonresident alien. Therefore, the answers they give to the questions in Step 1 allow them to proceed to Step 2.
- Step 2. The only investment income the Greys have is their $50 interest income. That amount is not more than $2,550, so they go to Step 3.
- Step 3. In Step 3 of the instructions for line 41, the Greys find out that they do not have to use Publication 596. However, they decide to get and use the publication because they heard that it has information they want about advance EIC. When they read Publication 596, they find that they have already met Rules 1 5 and can start with Rule 6.
- Rule 6. The Greys meet this rule because they have earned income (Cynthia's and Jerry's wages). They go to Rule 7 in chapter 2 because they believe they have qualifying children.
- Rule 7. Cynthia and Jerry meet this rule because both Kirk and Susanne meet the relationship, residency, and age tests. In addition, both children have valid SSNs.
- Rule 8. The Greys meet this rule because Kirk and Susanne are not qualifying children of anyone else.
- Rule 9. Cynthia and Jerry meet this rule because they themselves are not qualifying children of anyone else. They meet all the rules so far, so they go to chapter 4.
- Rule 14. Cynthia and Jerry's AGI is $25,050 ($25,000 + $50), the amount on line 21 of their Form 1040A. They meet Rule 14.
- Rule 15. Cynthia and Jerry complete Worksheet 2 (not shown) and figure their total earned income to be $25,000, the amount of their combined wages. They meet this rule.

Completing EIC Worksheet A. Cynthia and Jerry want to figure their EIC themselves, so they complete EIC Worksheet A (shown here). They complete EIC Worksheet A, rather than EIC Worksheet B, because they are not self-employed, church employees, or filing Schedule C or C–EZ as statutory employees.

- 1) Cynthia and Jerry enter their total earned income ($25,000) on line 1.
- 2) They look up $25,000 in the EIC Table in the Appendix. To find their credit, they look in the column for married filing jointly with two children. They enter the amount of $1,928 on line 2.
- 3) They enter on line 3 their AGI ($25,050) and see that it is different from the amount on line 1.
- 4) They look up $25,050 in the EIC Table and enter the amount of $1,917 on line 5.
- 5) They enter $1,917 on line 6. This is the smaller of the line 2 amount ($1,928) and the line 5 amount ($1,917).
- The Greys enter $1,917 on line 41 of their Form 1040A. They will now complete Schedule EIC (shown here) and attach it to their return. They will keep EIC Worksheet A for their records.

Schedule EIC (Form 1040A or 1040) 2002

Example: David and Judy Brown have three children, a business profit, and a business loss.

Example 2. David and Judy Brown

David and Judy Brown have three children—Karl, age 4, and twins, Karin and Susan, age 2. David worked and earned $16,000 in taxable wages. He received $1,500 in unemployment compensation. David also began a consulting business. After expenses, David had a loss of $1,000. Judy made crafts and sold them at a flea market. She had a profit of $706. In addition, David and Judy received $50 in interest from a savings account.

Judy completes Schedule C-EZ and reports the $706 profit. She also completes Schedule SE and figures self-employment tax of $100. She puts this figure on line 56 (Form 1040) and deducts $50, one-half of her self-employment tax, on line 29 (Form 1040).

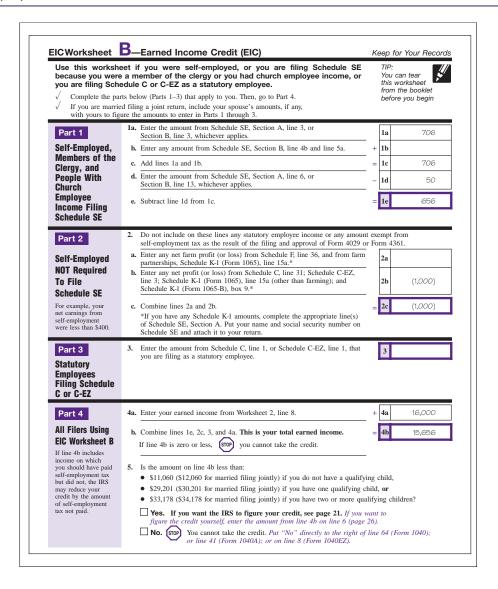

David completes Schedule C and reports his $1,000 loss. David and Judy combine their Schedules C and C-EZ to report a loss of $294 ($706 – $1,000) on line 12 of their Form 1040. David will not complete Schedule SE because he does not have any net earnings from self-employment.

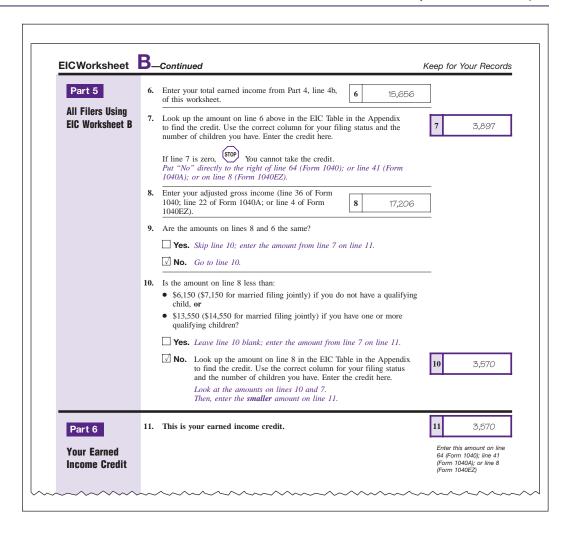

David and Judy read Publication 596 and find that they meet all the rules to claim the EIC. For example, they will file a joint return ($Rule\ 2$). Their investment income ($50 interest from a savings account) is less than $2,550 ($Rule\ 5$). All three of their children are qualifying children ($Rule\ 7$). Their AGI of $17,206 ($16,000 + $50 + $706 - $1,000 + $1,500 - $50) is less than $34,178 ($Rule\ 14$).

Completing EIC Worksheet B. Because the Browns have self-employment income and want to figure their credit themselves, they complete EIC Worksheet B (shown later).

- Part 1. David and Judy begin EIC Worksheet B with Part 1 because Judy is self-employed and will file Schedule SE. They enter $706 and $50 from Judy's Schedule SE on lines 1a and 1d respectively. They figure line 1e to be $656 ($706 $50).
- Part 2. Because David is not filing Schedule SE, the Browns enter David's $1,000 loss on lines 2b and 2c. They put this amount in parentheses because it is a loss. They skip Part 3 because neither David nor Judy is a statutory employee.
- Part 4. The Browns enter $16,000 (the earned income they figured using Worksheet 2) on line 4a. They combine lines 1e, 2c, 3, and 4a and enter the result, $15,656, on line 4b. Because that amount is less than $34,178, they qualify for the credit, so they enter $15,656 on line 6.
- Part 5. David and Judy look up the amount on line 6 ($15,656) in the EIC Table. To find their credit, they look in the column for Married filing jointly with Two children. They enter the amount of $3,897 on line 7. They enter their AGI ($17,206 from line 34 of Form 1040) on line 8 and see that it is different from the amount on line 6. They look up $17,206 in the EIC Table and enter the amount of $3,570 on line 10.
- Part 6. The Browns enter $3,570 on line 11. This is the smaller of the line 7 amount ($3,897) and the line 10 amount ($3,570). They also enter $3,570 on line 64 of their Form 1040. They will now complete Schedule EIC (not shown), including information for two of their three children, and attach it to their return. They will keep EIC Worksheet B for their records.

Example:

Sharon Rose does not have a qualifying child and her AGI is too high for her to claim the EIC.

Example 3. Sharon Rose

Sharon Rose is age 63 and retired. She received $7,000 in social security benefits during the year and $5,850 from a part-time job. She also received a taxable pension of $5,400. Sharon had no other income. Her AGI on line 22 of Form 1040A is $11,250 ($5,850 + $5,400).

Sharon is not married and lived alone in the United States for the entire year. She cannot be claimed as a dependent on anyone else's return. She does not have any investment income and does not have a qualifying child.

Sharon reads the steps for eligibility in her Form 1040A instructions. In Step 1 she discovers that, because her AGI ($11,250) is not less than $11,060, she cannot take the EIC. She completes the rest of her Form 1040A and files it with the IRS.

Example:

Steve and Linda Green have two children, a loss from a dairy farm, and a net capital gain from selling cows.

Example 4. Steve and Linda Green

Steve and Linda Green have two children, Amy, age 8, and Carol, age 10, who lived with them all year.

Steve owns and operates a dairy farm that had a loss of $2,000 in 2002. Steve reports this loss on Schedule F and on Form 1040, line 18. Steve qualifies and chooses to use the optional method to figure net earnings, so he uses Section B of Schedule SE. He enters $1,600 on lines 15 and 4b of Section B of Schedule SE. Steve figures self-employment tax of $244. He deducts one-half of it ($122) on line 29 (Form 1040).

Linda had wages of $15,000, which she reports on Form 1040, line 7. She also received advance EIC payments of $1,140, which she reports on Form 1040, line 59.

Steve and Linda had a $1,000 gain from the sale of stock and a $3,000 gain from the sale of raised dairy cows they had held for 3 years. They report the $3,000 gain on Form 4797, Sales of Business Property. They do not have any other sales to report on Form 4797, so they enter $3,000 on line 7 of Form 4797 and on line 11, column (f), of Schedule D. (They have no prior year section 1231 losses.) They report their net capital gain of $4,000 ($1000 + $3,000) from Schedule D on Form 1040, line 13.

The Greens read Publication 596 and find that they meet all the rules to claim the EIC. For example, they will file a joint return (Rule 2). Their investment income, figured on Worksheet 1 (shown here), is $1,000, which is less than $2,550 (Rule 5). Also, their AGI of $16,878 ($15,000 + $4,000 - $2,000 - $122) is less than $34,178 (Rule 14). They use EIC Worksheet B (shown here) to figure their EIC of $3,644. They also complete Schedule EIC (not shown) and attach it to their Form 1040.

How To Get Tax Help

You can get help with unresolved tax issues, order free publications and forms, ask tax questions, and get more information from the IRS in several ways. By selecting the method that is best for you, you will have quick and easy access to tax help.

Contacting your Taxpayer Advocate. If you have attempted to deal with an IRS problem unsuccessfully, you should contact your Taxpayer Advocate.

The Taxpayer Advocate represents your interests and concerns within the IRS by protecting your rights and resolving problems that have not been fixed through normal channels. While Taxpayer Advocates cannot change the tax law or make a technical tax decision, they can clear up problems that resulted from previous contacts and ensure that your case is given a complete and impartial review.

To contact your Taxpayer Advocate:

- Call the Taxpayer Advocate at 1-877-777-4778.
- Call, write, or fax the Taxpayer Advocate office in your area.
- Call 1-800-829-4059 if you are a TTY/TDD user.

For more information, see Publication 1546, The Taxpayer Advocate Service of the IRS.
